Dear Loyal Supporter,

I am excited to announce that I, John Martino, a physical therapist at Allied Services, will be running the Napa Valley Marathon in March 2025 as part of Team Allied Services. This incredible opportunity allows me to combine my passion for running with my commitment to helping children and adults in Northeastern and Central Pennsylvania overcome disabilities, life-changing injuries, and chronic illnesses.

Why I’m Running:

Every mile I run supports Allied Services’ mission to inspire fitness, challenge disability, and change lives. Your donation will help provide specialized rehab care for individuals of all ages, giving them the tools they need to achieve independence and thrive.

How You Can Help:

I’ve committed to raising funds as part of my participation in the Napa Valley Marathon. 100% of your donation will directly support Allied Services’ programs, including pediatric rehabilitation, stroke recovery, Parkinson’s care, and more.

Ways to Donate:

- Online: Visit my fundraising page at <https://fundraisers.hakuapp.com/john-martino>
- Mail: Send a check made payable to Team Allied Services to the address below, with “John Martino - Napa Valley Marathon” in the memo line.

Thank you for considering this opportunity to support Allied Services and the work I’m so proud to be part of every day. Let’s make miracles happen—one step, one mile, one life at a time.
